

NAMED HEAD BOY SCOUT COUNCIL

James H. Bergquist Reappointed Executive.

Walter was named president of the Rock Island Boy Scout Council at its annual election at Scout headquarters, Monday evening. Mr. Witter succeeded Mr. H. Strieter, who as head of the council for the last three years had served as leader of scouting activities during the most progressive period of the movement in this city. The new president has long been interested in the work and has been the host to many Scouts of the local troops at Camp Winnie, located at the Witter farm west of town.

James H. Bergquist was reappointed Scout executive and secretary of the local council. Other officers were elected as follows: Presidents—J. F. Murphy, C. H. Murphy, C. D. Rosenfield, E. H. Rosenfield, Oscar Ohlweiler. Treasurer—George H. Sheldon. Scout commissioner—Sam Ryerson.

New members elected to the council are: E. O. Valle, Dr. Louis Ostrom, Dr. C. E. Ash, R. M. Fick, Dan K. Brennan. The above new members of the council is composed of the following men as chairmen of various committees throughout the year: W. N. Phillips, C. L. Laven, Hugh E. Curtis, Jerome Harper, W. H. Kelley, Rev. W. G. Oglevee, Robert Rote, Clyde Maynard, Rev. C. P. O'Neill, Harry Fuller, Mayer Levi, Harvey Coleman, Michael Belmont, C. A. Larson, E. H. Slo-

Next Week Thanksgiving. Next Month Christmas. And How we will Celebrate Them!

You have read our President's earnest, heartfelt proclamation, appointing Thursday, November 25. Be 100 percent American and observe it in the manner he has appointed—be grateful, give thanks.

Now about an important matter, concerning the great family function—the dinner—on Thanksgiving Day and Christmas. Will it be served amidst surroundings that are satisfactory and pleasing to you?

Is your dining room furnished as it should be—or is the furniture run-down and out of date? If it is, sell it—advertise in the classified sections of the Moline Dispatch and you will get a good, big price for it. Then buy a new suite, either pay cash, in 30 days, and get a liberal discount, or you may use our payment plan—a great convenience for many.

Make Your Kitchen an Economical Room

Put it on a saving basis. Save time, food, work, money and health by the use of a Hoover Kitchen Cabinet. Don't wait any longer, for once you have used this cabinet you will wonder how you got along without it.
